Welcome to a home which proves that dreams really do come true.

With its white picket fence, wide front verandah, and turn-of-the-century charm, this beautifully restored character home is the happy-ever-after you've been waiting for - in a prime Inglewood position.

Sitting on a 622sqm block, this wonderful three-bedroom, two-bathroom home boasts warmth, character and a superb design aesthetic. Even better, it has a separate study with private entry, which could double as a guest suite or home office.

This is a particularly special renovation, with care and consideration having been given to every corner of the property, both inside and out. Original features have been
